ANNOUNCEMENTS

University Club Trip.

An affair which is being anticipated with keen interest is the boat trip to be given by the University club Thursday. Members of the club have invited a number of charming society leaders to be their guests, as well as a number of lovely girls from out of town.

The party plans to leave Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, returning some time Saturday. Those in charge of the arrangements for the affair are Mr. H. H. Howard, president of the club, and Miss T. W. Vinson, secretary.

The chaperons will be Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Lytle Locke.

Everything possible to assure a good time for all the guests has been planned for the trip.

Y. L. I. Entertainers.

The members of the Young Ladies' institute will be entertained Wednesday evening at the Knights of Columbus hall. At 8:30 o'clock a delicious buffet upper will be served, after which dancing and cards will be enjoyed until a late hour.

ENTERTAINMENTS

Mrs. W. B. Murrah Hostess.

A delightful little affair, enjoyable for its informality, was the tea given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. William B. Murrah in her home on Central avenue. A special compliment to her charming young daughter-in-law, Mrs. William B. Murrah, who was formerly Miss Corinne Talle.

Mrs. Murrah has just returned from a trip East, where she joined her husband, Capt. W. B. Murrah, upon his arrival from overseas. The Murrah home was artistically decorated in a profusion of peonies and roses, and tea and delicious sandwiches were served quite a number of fortunate guests.

Mrs. Dean Hostess.

Mrs. William Dean was the charming hostess of a lovely bridge party Monday afternoon, when she entertained in special compliment to Mrs. S. A. Carleton, of Pueblo, Colo., who is visiting her sisters, the Misses Dean, on Carroll avenue. Mrs. Dean's home on Southworth place was the scene of the party and was beautifully decorated in a wealth of bright and fragrant blossoms. After several thoroughly enjoyed games of bridge, the fortunate holders of high scores were awarded handsome prizes, and tempting refreshments served on the bridge table.

MEXICAN CHIEF ARRIVES.

NEW YORK, May 12.—Pedro Lasurain, formerly minister of foreign affairs of Mexico under Madero, who, after the latter's assassination, was arrested and imprisoned for 26 months on Feb. 19, 1913, incidental to Huerta's succession, arrived here today with his family aboard the Ward liner Monterey.

BEAUTIFUL MISSOURIAN TO ACCOMPANY FLORAL QUEEN

MISS MARION BOND.

Miss Marion Bond, one of Missouri's most beautiful society girls, has been appointed by Gov. Frederick D. Gardner of that state to be maid of honor to Miss Maude Renkert, Memphis' queen of the flowers, in the centennial's brilliant floral parade.

She will arrive with a number of other charming maids of honor the latter part of the week and will be under the chaperonage of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Parker at the Hotel Gayoso.

CLUBDOM

D'Estant Chapter D. A. R.

Miss Alice Bigelow was the charming hostess of the Admiral d'Estant chapter, D. A. R., Saturday afternoon in her beautiful home, 2149 Strathmore avenue. After a short business session presided over by the regent, Mrs. L. T. Lindsay, a delightful musical program prepared by the historian, Mrs. H. M. Rhodes, was greatly enjoyed. Miss Martha Chandler delighted everyone with a beautiful piano solo, "Coming Spring," by Lacombe. She also gave a lovely waltz of her own composition, "One Happy Day," by De Costa, was given in a charming manner by Miss Anna Lee Calais, and little Miss Anna Murray Manire gave a delightful reading, "Mary Murray of Murray Hill."

The guest of honor for the afternoon was Miss Willie C. Johnson, who has just returned from Italy, where she has spent the past year in civilian relief work. She gave an interesting talk on the Italian orphans. It was through Miss Johnson that the chapter adopted an Italian orphan, hence her talk was doubly interesting. She also told of the Christmas party she gave for 46 little orphans in Italy and the happiness and joy it brought to each one. Her talk was enjoyed thoroughly by everyone who had the good fortune to be present.

During the social hour a delicious tea course was served. All the members extended good wishes to the bride-elect, Miss Virmar Venn, whose marriage will occur in June, and who is a popular member of Admiral d'Estant chapter.

Salon "President's Day."

President's day was beautifully observed by the Salon circle Monday, when the members entertained with a breakfast at the Hotel Gayoso at 12:30 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Meyer M. Gattman, retiring president, and Mrs. J. C. Felenthal, the incoming president.

During the serving of the dainty five-course menu the guests were seated at three tables, which presented a very pretty picture, each table having a most artistic centerpiece of peonies and roses, arranged in beautiful ivory baskets.

The toastmistress for the morning was Mrs. Laura M. Winter, who introduced each speaker in her usual charming manner.

Mrs. Mark Davis and Mrs. Amanda Hexter, charter members of the organization, were first to speak, and in their very interesting talks the history of the forming and development of the Salon circle was shown.

The work of the Salon circle during the trying years of the war was the subject of two very interesting talks by Mrs. Benjamin Wolff and Mrs. Harry Lewis.

Mrs. Gattman reviewed the splendid results of the past four years' work. During that time Mrs. Gattman, as leader of the splendid body of women, made the progress of the Salon circle her most earnest aim, and never once did she fail to respond to a plea for her assistance in club activities or work.

Mrs. Felenthal spoke of the pride which it gave her to lead such a splendid organization and briefly outlined a few plans of the season's work.

A tribute to the members of the Salon circle and the two fine women who were leaders, was paid the ladies by Rabbi William H. Fineshriber, who was an especially invited guest of the occasion.

Rozell School Play.

A very entertaining little play, "The Suffragettes City Meeting," given by Rozell Parent-Teacher association, is to be repeated, by request, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the school. The plot of the play is entirely humorous and the parts are all well acted, those deserving special mention being the servants and the impositions will be in the able hands of Mrs. J. J. Crump, Mrs. Claude Redford, Mrs. Denberry, Mrs. Glen Rose, Mrs. Austin Tindall, Meta Doherty and Elizabeth Stanley. Tickets may be procured at the door.

Woman's Missionary Society.

Mrs. V. R. Smith's division of the Woman's Missionary society of the Linden Avenue Christian church has prepared the following program to be given at the church Wednesday at 1:30 o'clock:

News of Our Ancestors 250 Years Ago

May 13, 1664. "To the 'Change, after office, and received my watch from the watchmaker, and a very fine one it is, given me by Briggs, the scrivener. But, Lord, to see how much of my old folly and childishness hangs upon me still, that I cannot forbear carrying my watch in my hand, in the coach, all this afternoon, and seeing what o'clock it is one hundred times, and am apt to think with myself, how could I be so long without one; though I remember, since I had one, and found it a trouble, and resolved to carry one no more about me while I lived."
